Dear Friends, for November’s Bagel & Bible/Kristallnacht Commemoration, the Hochberg Holocaust and Human Rights Education Committee will feature speakers from SafeHaven Museum in Oswego, N.Y. (https://www.safehavenmuseum.com) and Integrated Refugee and Immigration Services (www.iris.org).

We are privileged to have one of Oswego’s refugees tell us about her experiences at Fort Ontario. For some background reading, we recommend Token Shipment, a book describing the Jewish refugee experience in Oswego N.Y. in 1944. It tells the story about 982 refugees fleeing the Nazi invasion who were invited by President Roosevelt to a converted military base in upstate New York.

For additional background reading we recommend a New York Times article dated 9/11/20 “The Secret History of America’s Only WWII Refugee Camp.” Our program ties together the experience of a Holocaust survivor and the ongoing crisis we now face as over 79.5 million people seek a safer haven from forcible displacements. Find that article here: https://nyti.ms/2TjQ7zs

Thank you in advance to Ken Dardick who will oversee our “Zoom Room” and to David Stoloff for a brief service that will focus on a biblical refugee. Zoom information will be sent to your email.
Due to COVID-19 the Temple building remains closed. We hope to see you at our virtual services and celebrations held via ZOOM.

REMINDER:
Rav Jeremy is on sabbatical through February 14th. He will be missed by all!

AND, THE MORE THINGS CHANGE...
...well, the more they change!

Dear Friends, our dedicated, diligent, and hardworking Office Administrator, Marlene Aulten, is heading to retirement, effective at the end of February 2021. For five and a half years, Marlene has managed the office with efficiency and good grace. She has handled the myriad tasks of the job effectively, and has helped to better assure the smooth functioning of all aspects of Temple life. Her hard work over these many years is deeply appreciated. We wish her only the best as she contemplates the pleasures of retirement!
Early misty October morning, eyes half-open, waiting for the coffee pot to cease its gurgling. Waiting for that first sip. The window shade is half open and I can make out shadows moving slowly on the downward slope of the hill just outside the kitchen. Deer. Six…seven…eight of them! Munching at the ground cover (I hope they like poison ivy.) The sun begins to burn off the mist and the gorgeous colors of the fall are illuminated. What a beautiful scene. Coffee brewed, two cups in hand, it’s back to bed, time for java and NPR news. BAD MISTAKE. The news today sounds like the news yesterday, like the news the day before that. No need to describe to anyone what news we’re talking about.

Radio off, we reflect on the holiday services recently concluded. Ah, that’s a mood changer. Zoomed though they were, there was an intimacy unlike that experienced in a ‘live’ worship service. So many people contributed. Our shofar ensemble, maybe a bit unsynchronized, was dramatic and inspiring. The cantorial soloist, up close and personal, was deeply affecting. The siddur, cooperatively developed, struck the perfect tone for this time, our time. The rabbi was spot on in his sermon, the use of the remarks of Ruth Bader Ginsberg timely and moving. Our spirits were elevated by the violin soloist and by our own Bat Kol. We even chatted for a few moments in break-out rooms. Brilliant. A connection, as brief as it was, that filled a void.

It’s probably not possible to stay away from our favorite sources of information. Perhaps in these times it’s even essential that we remain informed, that we share our thoughts and concerns with those with whom we interact. Yet we also need time and space to step back. To enjoy the wondrous beauty of the season.
To reflect on the joys of family and friends that help to sustain us.

PJ LIBRARY OFFERS FREE BOOKS, MUSIC, & MORE! Morah Stephanie Malinow

Every month, PJ LIBRARY (pjlibrary.org) delivers more than 650,000 books to families around the world with children 6 months through 8 years old. Free books for 9-12-year-olds are available at PJ OUR WAY (pjourway.org).

PJ Library is not affiliated with any Jewish movement, but has a wide variety of partners from every corner of the Jewish world, beginning with the Harold Grinspoon Foundation. The Book Selection Committee, comprised of foremost early-childhood educators and children’s literature experts, strives to curate the very best children’s story books that convey Jewish values, traditions and themes for a broad spectrum of contemporary families. Craft ideas, music and follow-up discussion ideas are also available, as well as online family activities, story podcasts, and more. We encourage all congregants committed to the Jewish education of young children to consider this exceptional program.

More information is available online, or from Morah Stephanie at sjmalinow@gmail.com.
WANTED—YOUR ONLINE PROGRAM IDEAS

This is a call for anyone to consider leading some kind of activity that the community can take part in. While we have a variety of virtual services, and the business of the Temple is getting done in online meetings, our communal adult programming has suffered during the pandemic.

Maybe you have an area of expertise to share, some knowledge or skill, or a discussion, book group, art or music, etc. you believe others would like to partake of. You could present a talk and have Q&A, do a demonstration of some kind--maybe with audience participation--or conduct a "webinar." You might recruit others to help with a presentation. If you're not comfortable with Zoom, no problem; we'll work out technological details as we schedule programs.

Anyone who wishes to volunteer should describe the content of the program, and mention the length and the kind of presentation. Also, say when it could take place: the time of year, as well as possible days and times. We used to have talks on Sunday afternoons, so that's a good time frame to consider.

Send your ideas to Scott DeShong,
Director of Programming
at spdeshong@gmail.com.

WAHM LOOKING FOR PEOPLE TO JOIN THEIR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Windham Area Interfaith Ministry is looking for 4 people to join its Board of Directors. WAIM is committed to building a board that is representative of our community, which covers Willimantic/Windham, and 11 surrounding towns.

They are particularly looking for people who have experience in finance, public relations, and marketing, and who are committed to WAIM’s goals of providing a safety net to our low income clients so that they may stay safely housed, meet basic material needs, and connect to resources that improve stability.

For more information and/or if you are interested in becoming a WAIM Board member, please contact Victoria Nimirowski, Executive Director at director@waimct.org or 860-456-7270 Ext. 11 or Temple member Carol Polsky at cpolsky@snet.net or 860-916-4798.
The Tikkun Olamers’ have been busy in a variety of ways. We took on voter registration (pictured at left) during September and October in preparation for the upcoming election. We made a significant effort to get the most accurate information out to the public about registering as well as the proper process for getting an absentee ballot. Those of us who were able took to the streets in Mansfield, Coventry and Willimantic with our flyers and voter registration forms and enabled many of our local citizens to be in a position to vote.

We have been tapped by HIAS’ Welcome the Stranger Campaign to bring the issues associated with refugees and asylum seekers to the platforms of our CT second district candidates for US Representative for Congress.

A subgroup of the Tikkun Olam Committee and Rav Jeremy met with Representative Courtney on October 21st (photos below) to discuss how we can support efforts to again become a country with a robust immigration program. We have been making on-going efforts to reach out to his opponent who has not been responding to any of our messages to date. Please contact me if you are interested in learning more details of what we, as HIAS partners, are proposing to each of the candidates.

We are encouraging everyone in our community to remember to participate in WAIM’s Walk for Warmth to help our community raise funds for our neighbors in need. Due to COVID-19, many people have lost their jobs and income and we anticipate this being an especially harsh year for many, many of our neighbors to be able to pay their energy bills. The Walk is scheduled for Sunday, November 22nd, though people are encouraged to walk virtually if they wish. You can register online www.waimct.org or mail a check directly to WAIM PO Box 221, Willimantic, CT 06226. An Interfaith Thanksgiving service is being planned on the Willimantic Green at 1:00 p.m. on November 22nd – appropriately socially distanced, potentially in our cars.

For any more information on our work please contact Merle at jermerle@att.net.
To Jill and Jim Marocchini are thrilled to announce the engagement of their daughter Alexandra Kaplan to Tomer Kornfeld.

To Moshe and Sima Lessner on the birth of a grandson. Further details were not available at press time.

Welcome new member Aline Hoffman.

We are so grateful for another quiet month in October. Thanks to Fran and Jane for being ready to help if the need arose. Our leader for November is Susan Meisler. It would be great if someone would be willing to partner with her. After that, we have no volunteers. Please consider stepping in. It’s never too early.

The Caring Committee will be leading a service during Rav Jeremy’s sabbatical. Our date is November 13 and the service is a TGI Shabbas which begins at 6:15 pm. Of course due to the “pandemic that won’t quit,” it will be a Zoom service. Further info on that will be forthcoming. We hope many Temple members will join us and learn more about our committee and some of the history behind what we strive for.

If you or anyone you know needs some help, you can contact the monthly leaders or the committee co-chairs, Fran Jaffe and Ellie Shane. Thanksgiving might be a challenge this year, but we can all count our many blessing and be grateful for all the good in our lives.

Fran

As The Israel Desk continues to find meaningful ways to bring Israel to you, we have a wonderful treat for you coming up on Sunday afternoon, November 1st, at 3:00 p.m. Mark your calendars!

Our past Emissaries, May Abudraham and Bar Halgoa, (pictured left) will come to our community via Zoom to reconnect with you and kick off this year with a program they started during their year with us. To give you a little history about that, by the time May & Bar arrived for the 2013-2014 year, the Young Emissary program had successfully been in our community for 12 years. However, when they would host Hebrew Café at Borders Books and Music Café, attendance was pretty low. After a few months, they asked me if they could do something different that they thought would engage more than just a few people but rather the whole community.

They came up with Café Dilemma: Dinner & Discussion. Bar liked “Café Dilemma” and May liked “Dinner & Discussion,” so I simply put them together; always the diplomat, never choosing one over the other. You may recall being invited to your synagogue for this. May and Bar prepared an Israeli meal of Shakshuka and Israeli Salad. Attendees all sat around a table in the social hall and enjoyed dinner and discussion, first at Temple Emanu-El, then Beth-El and finally at Temple Bnai Israel in Willimantic. The topics all centered around Israel, obviously.

As the subsequent years unfolded and we kept this program going, only a couple of things changed. The emissaries would not be responsible for cooking the dinner with their already very busy schedules. The federation, emissaries and synagogues sent out the information, people registered and the synagogues provided the dinners (pizza, sandwiches, and even full chicken dinners). Then, a few years ago, we changed the name to Café Israel. No matter what the meal or the name, the conversation was always lively, engaging and entertaining.

Fast forward to next Sunday, November 1, 2020. May and Bar are excited to see as many of you as possible who can be on the call with them to catch up and talk about all things Israel. They will bring a topic or two worthy of discussion. All you need to bring is your curiosity and lots of questions. Feel free to bring a drink and a nosh as well. We are looking forward to having our first Café Israel of the year. (You may recall Roi Refaeli led two of these last spring, on Zoom, when he and Tal returned home to Israel.) Who better to kick off Café Israel this year, under the auspices of The Israel Desk, than the two who brought it to our community in the first place? So, please join us:

The link for pre-registration is: https://bit.ly/2FQZrrn

The link will be available on our community calendar as well at jfec.com. Simply click the link, and fill in your name and email address. You will then receive an email from our Director, Carin Savel, in which there will be a link that says, “Click here to join.” Save that email (or pin it if you know how to) so you use it at the scheduled time. Please do not hesitate to reach out to Marcia Reinhard or our office administrator, Mimi Perl with any questions. You can reach them at the federation at 860-442-8062 or at their email addresses at mreinhard@jfec.com and mimi@jfec.com.
“Shared Legacies” is a new film released in February of 2020. It made its debut at the opening at the Atlanta Jewish Film Festival, just before COVID-19 shut-downs.

This documentary looks at the modern-day alliance between African Americans and Jewish Americans. It begins with the founding of the NAACP in 1909 and showcases the bigotry and segregation that both groups have faced. There are narrations and testimonies from Holocaust survivors, leaders, advocates, and prominent Atlantans such as U.S. Rep. John Lewis, Ambassador Andrew Young, Rabbi Alvin Sugarman, Rabbi Peter S. Berg, members of the King family, and many others.

Eastern CT, get ready for your showing! Mark your calendars and save the dates, November 4th through the 8th, as The Jewish Federation of Eastern CT is offering this film for your viewing pleasure.

The film will be available via a link for 72 hours and then, on Sunday, November 8th at 7:30 p.m., the director of the film, Shari Rogers, will speak to our community on the making of this film.

A suggested donation of $18.00 supports the many programs of the Jewish Federation, including, but not limited to, our Food Pantry, PPE’s for area nursing homes, Social Services, The Israel Desk, Youth Programs, Encountering Programs and, of course, film screenings and discussions such as this one (to name just a few)!

We are looking forward to sharing this event with you on November 8th, as we meet with, and learn from, Shari Rogers, Director of “Shared Legacies.”

Check your Jewish Leader, the JFEC website and JFEC Facebook page for the Zoom links and other details.

The Windham Region Interfaith Working Group, of which the Temple is an integral part, continues to raise funds for the No-Freeze project, the only homeless shelter in our area for single adults. The cold weather approaches and they are very much in need of support. Thanks to the Temple's Hochberg Holocaust and Human Rights Education Committee, "kick start" funds were used to purchase the T-shirts we have promoted in earlier editions of The Bulletin. Now that costs are almost paid back, all proceeds will begin to go directly to the No-Freeze project. Please review the updated order form and contact Pam Roberts as indicated. Take a "bundle" to sell or give to your friends and family. Thanks for caring!

Though we are still physically apart, we remain spiritually connected.

We hope you can join us for some or all of our virtual November services, while we await a time when we can again be together in person.
Dear Friends of WAIM,

I hope all of you are healthy, safe and doing well. Like most everything else this year, Walk for Warmth will be different than it has been in the past, but it is still happening!

The difference is that it will be a “virtual walk,” meaning you may walk any route you wish, with whomever you wish and still raise funds for WAIM’s Energy Assistance Program.

On-line registration and a link allowing your sponsors to donate online will be available on October 22 at waimct.org. For those of you who prefer paper email director@waimct.org and ask for a registration form to be sent to you.

The need is expected to be greater than ever this year, so we are counting on your support more than ever.

Victoria Nimirowski,
Director
